

Monday
June 21st
20:00

For whom: Anyone who calls this planet home and has some understanding of English. And don't forget to bring your friends!

What: Meet a bunch of international folks as well as people from Groningen, have fun, have some delicious foods, enjoy the music and learn about some inspiring projects in Groningen. The goal of this evening is to create a piece of art together that embodies the vision of a bright green future!

More information:

This event is organized by Transition Town Groningen, the grass roots movement that prepares Groningen for the consequences of Peak Oil and Climate Change.
